

CRYPTIC BOOKS.

Work out the title of the book from the clue.

1 mark for the title, 1 for the author, total 100 points

1. Our star's far eastern domain. Empire of the Sun J G Ballard
2. Corvid's route The Crow Road Iain Banks
3. While I was in the bed croaking As I Lay Dying William Faulkner
4. Armed Conflict and the kind of train Cat Stevens used to ride War & Peace Leo Tolstoy
5. Out of here in a current of air Gone with the Wind Margaret Mitchell
6. Tremendous anticipation Great Expectations Charles Dickens
7. What comes before a fall and a preconceived judgement towards a group Pride & Prejudice Jane Austen
8. Mitt-wearing home plate squatter covered in bread flour Catcher in the Rye J D Salinger
9. Murder a derisive, taunting, feather covered creature To Kill a Mockingbird Harper Lee
10. Au revoir to everything inside the shirt sleeves A Farewell to Arms Ernest Hemingway
11. Y2K minus Neil Sedaka's sweet girl's birthday 1984 George Orwell
12. Felonies and misdemeanours coupled with spankings Crime & Punishment Fyodor Dostoevsky
13. That audio and that rage The Sound and the Fury William Faulkner
14. Which person does the campanologist aim at? For Whom the Bell Tolls Ernest Hemingway
15. Flying insects' master Lord of the Flies William Golding

16. Courageous globe discovered      Brave New World    Aldous Huxley
17. Really value a place surrounded by water      Treasure Island    R L Stevenson
18. Story of a duo of municipalities      A Tale of Two Cities      Charles Dickens
19. About little rodents and grown boys      Of Mice and Men    John Steinbeck
20. Ruby coloured name tag indicating bravery      The Red Badge of Courage    Stephen Crane
21. Indian kids working a nightshift?      Midnight's Children    Salman Rushdie
22. A warming tale of espionage      The Spy Who Came in from the Cold    John le Carre
23. 40 would be too many to climb      The Thirty Nine Steps    John Buchan
24. In short the big bird with a large mouth      The Pelican Brief    John Grisham
25. More than two spies in Vienna      The Third Man    Graham Greene
26. I'll make him an offer he can't refuse      The Godfather    Mario Puzo
27. Went fishing - got just over 20.      Catch-22    Joseph Heller
28. Excessive pride on one's pale appearance?      Vanity Fair.    William Makepeace Thackeray
29. Prickly flyers      The Thorn Birds.    Colleen McCullough
30. Narrow alley leads to big country      A Passage to India    E.M. Forster
31. Flying Scotsman with a young woman      The Girl on the Train    Paula Hawkins
32. Thumber's celestial map      The Hitch-hikers Guide to the Galaxy    Douglas Adams
33. Wraith's way      The Ghost Road    Pat Barker
34. Grinding machine supplements dental cleaner      The Mill On The Floss    George Eliot
35. "Hey" sang the Beatles, not very clearly      Jude the Obscure    Thomas Hardy

36. Blue mixed with red   The Colour Purple   Alice Walker
37. This lad might be fit for purpose   A Suitable Boy   Vikram Seth
38. Lessee at the posh big house on turbulent high ground   The Tenant of Wildfell Hall   Anne Bronte, pseudonym Acton Bell
39. Inflect grammatically, then trip up   Decline and Fall   Evelyn Waugh
40. Dilute the boat   Watership Down   Richard Adams
41. No social distancing here in Bournemouth on a sunny day!   On the Beach   Neville Shute
42. At 23.55 what's left?   The Remains of the Day   Kazuo Ishiguro.
43. Baby sheep have lost their bleat.   The Silence of the Lambs   Thomas Harris
- 44.They revolted when he told them to only blow the bloody doors off.   The Caine Mutiny   Herman Wouk.
- 45.Felix is rocking here.   Cat's Cradle   Kurt Vonnegut.
46. The quiet season.   Silent Spring   Rachel Carson.
- 47.Biscuit box paradiddle.   The Tin Drum.   Günter Grass.
48. British representative in Cuba.   Our Man in Havana   Graham Greene
- 49.A Feathered Friend's Lullaby   Birdsong   Sebastian Faulks
- 50.Temperature At Which Paper Burns   Fahrenheit 451   Ray Bradbury