

ALPHABET QUIZ

- A. What was the first frozen food available for sale in the UK in 1937?
- B. What kind of apes occupy the Rock of Gibraltar?
- C. What is the surname of the author of 'Patriot Games'?
- D. Which pop group was comprised of David Van Day and Thereza Bazar?
- E. Dunedin is the Celtic name for which city?
- F. Who played the role of Barbara in 'The Good Life'?
- G. Which woodcarver created Pinocchio?
- H. Which cartoon character was famous for singing 'My Darling Clementine'?
- I. What is the capital of Pakistan?
- J. Oliver Tambo airport serves which city?
- K. Which chess piece cannot move in a straight line?
- L. Which internet search engine gets its name from the latin for Wolf Spider?
- M. By what name is Mark McLoughlin of 'Wet Wet Wet' fame better known as?
- N. On what part of the body is a 'Belcher' worn?
- O. Who is Popeye's girlfriend?
- P. Which chemical element is derived from the Greek for 'Light Bearing'?
- Q. In which Australian state is the 'Gold Coast'?
- R. What sickness is caused by the lack of vitamin D?
- S. Which British city was the first in the world to register a football club?
- T. Which country had the Guns of Navarone installed?
- U. What Viking tradition is celebrated each year in the Shetland Isles by the burning of a traditional longboat?
- V. What is the largest city in Austria?
- W. What name is now given to the German Regime between 1919 -1933?
- X. Which pop groups first album was called 'White Music' in 1978?
- Y. What are you doing if you pandiculate?
- Z. What is the Spanish word for fox and the name of a masked swordsman?