

Northumbria Region u3a
in association with Northumbria Region u3a Events Team

Exhibition Tours of 'Turner: Art, Industry and Nostalgia'

Image:
River Tyne
'Keelmen Heaving in Coals by Moonlight' 1835
wikiart.org
public domain

Tickets
Concessions £4
Please pay by July 12th on first come basis.

Join u3a members at the Laing to step inside the works of Turner's masterpiece, 'The Fighting Temeraire' and some of his paintings of the North-East depicted the North East's industrial heritage.

Venue: Laing Art Gallery, Newcastle upon Tyne

Tours: Tuesday 30th July at 10.30 and 12.30

At 10.30 and 12.30, there will be a 50mins

Powerpoint presentation in the function room.

This is followed by an accompanied tour of the exhibition.

Members are then free to browse on their own.

u3a members will be there to register you and show you the location of the function room.

To book a place: email Catherine Stevenson at intoto444@hotmail.com with your Name u3a name tour time

No.of tickets required.

Please pay when registering or asap after. Max of 20 members per tour so it's first come basis then a waiting list. You will be informed if you have a place or not.

Tickets: to purchase a ticket pay by B.A.C.S asap after registering

Account name: University of the Third Age, Northumbria Region u3a

Sort code: 20-83-69

Account number: 90916382

Reference: either Tour 10.30 or Tour 12.30 depending on which tour you want to join.